

PROPER INSTALLATION OF FOOT GROUNDERS

Insert the contact strip inside of the shoe and under the foot. You may also insert the contact strip between the sock and skin. Make sure that a solid contact is made between the sock and body. Do not allow the contact strip to twist or bunch up. Once heel is repositioned inside tied shoe, tuck excess ribbon material into side of shoe.

Test each foot grounder to confirm proper installation.